Ants in the Square Pants®

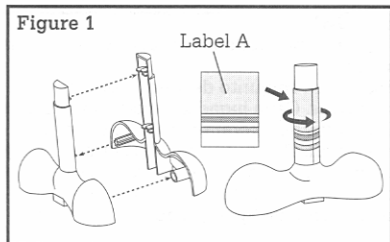

CONTENTS: Square Pants • Cardboard SpongeBob
• 4 Foot Sections • 16 Ants • 2 Label Sheets

OBJECT

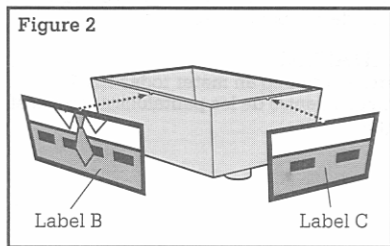

Have fun! Make your ants jump into SpongeBob's pants! Finish first and you'll be the winner!

GET READY!

1. Remove the plastic ants from the bag. Discard the bag.
2. Feet: Take any 2 foot sections and snap them together. Repeat this step with the remaining 2 foot sections. There are 2 sock labels (Label A). Wrap one label around each leg. See Figure 1.

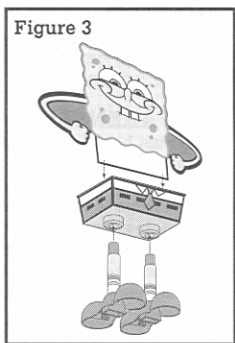

3. Pants: There are 4 pants labels—2 long (Label B) and 2 short (Label C). First apply each Label B, then apply each Label C to the pants as shown in Figure 2.

Note: Match center notch on labels with raised notch on plastic pants.

4. Insert the legs into the base of the pants, one leg at a time and slide the cardboard SpongeBob into the slots inside the pants as shown in Figure 3.

GET SET!

1. Place SpongeBob in the middle of a table or on the floor.
2. Choose a set of 4 matching color ants. Each player chooses a different color set: red, yellow, green or blue. Place your ants in front of you and you're ready to play. All players do the same. NOTE: You can play from either side of SpongeBob.

GO!

One player calls out "Go" and all of you try to make your ants jump into the pants. Here's how: Press your finger down on the tail of the ant. As your finger slips off, your ant will jump up and, hopefully, into his pants.

YOU WIN!

If you're the first to get all 4 of your ants into the pants, you win the game!
