

Get ready

1. Set out the jacks on the table.
2. Each player chooses a ball.
3. The player whose birthday is coming up next goes first.

How to play

1. The first player starts the game with onesies: Toss the ball in the air, pick up one jack with the same hand, and catch the ball again with the same hand after the ball bounces once. Continue until you pick up all the jacks or miss one.
2. The next player tries for onesies, continuing until all the jacks are picked up or a miss occurs.
3. It's the first player's turn again. If the first player completed onesies on the previous turn, it's time to move on to twosies (picking up two jacks at a time). If the first player did not complete onesies, they must repeat it.

4. Continue playing onesies, twosies, threesies, and so on. Do a clean sweep to finish each round by bouncing the ball and picking up any jacks that are left over.

How to win

The first player to complete fivesies wins!

Now try this!

- Play using your opposite hand.
- Play without letting the ball bounce.
- Drop a ball from each hand and catch both. Now try with two in each hand!
- Spin a jack like a top on the lid of the can.
- Play by yourself, and see if you can go higher than fivesies.
- How high can you bounce the balls? Do any of the balls bounce higher than the others?
- Add this twist: Between tossing the ball and picking up the jacks, clap your hands!
