PARTS

TO ASSEMBLE

IMPORTANT NOTE: DO NOT PUT WHEELS ONTO AXLES BEFORE SLIDING AXLES THROUGH BODY

1. Slide axles through holes in ride-on body. Turn body onto its side so that ends of axles without attached disks face up as shown.

2. Twist and remove axle spacers from holding frame (trim any sharp edges on spacers). Slide spacer onto each axle until flush against ride-on body as shown (ILL. 2A). Place wheel onto axle, then block of wood onto wheel. With bottom of axle end resting on a flat surface, secure each wheel to axle by tapping block of wood with a hammer until ridge in center of wheel rests in groove on axle (ILL. 2B). Repeat for other wheel on same side.

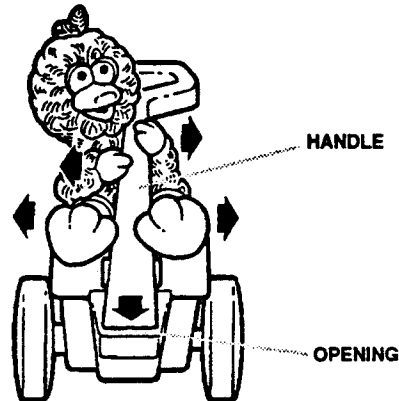

3. Flip body onto other side. Place wheel onto axle (no spacers are needed), then block of wood onto wheel and secure each wheel as indicated in step 2.

4. To secure seat to wagon body, slide tab in seat into hole in body, then push down on seat to engage other tab and hole.

5. To attach Big Bird to body, snap clips on bottom of Big Bird into holes inside circular depression on body (ILL. 5A). Press ratchet fastener through band and into hole in body (ILL. 5B). Note: To fully insert ratchet fastener, it may be necessary to tap fastener into hole with a hammer.

6. Spread Big Bird's feet apart and place the lower end of handle between them. Insert end of handle into opening in body. Spread Big Bird's hands apart and fit handle between them as shown.

7. To secure handle to ride-on body, slide bolt through handle hole (hole between wider-spaced ribs), then through holes in ride-on body and other handle hole (ILL. 7A).

Place the nut over end of bolt and, with a regular screwdriver, screw bolt into nut (ILL. 7B).

Note: Nut and head of bolt should fit between ribs; when fit properly, nut will not turn as the bolt is being tightened.

8. Peel and apply label as shown.
