FIRST THINGS FIRST

Your Remote Controller

This game's "one button" navigation lets you play quickly and easily. All you need to do is press the ENTER button on your remote controller. If you do not have an ENTER button, try the SELECT or center button. A remote icon will come on screen to remind you to press the button to continue. NOTE: To pause a game, press PAUSE; to exit a game, press the MENU, TITLE or TOP MENU buttons.

Gingerbread Cookie Tokens

Pop the Gingerbread Cookie tokens out of the cardboard sheets and throw away the waste.

Play Mats

Pull the play mats apart and remove the plastic sheets. Discard the plastic sheets.

TWO WAYS TO PLAY

Each of the three games has two ways to play:

1. Just for Fun

Playing Just for Fun lets kids join in the activity without competing. There's no winning or losing, just fun. If you're playing Just for Fun, you won't need the Gingerbread Cookie tokens so put them back in the box, for now.

2. Game Time

Playing the Game lets kids challenge themselves while collecting Gingerbread Cookie tokens. King Kandy, Mister Mint and Gramma Nutt will award these tokens throughout the games. You never know what a token will be awarded for, so listen carefully. The player with the most Gingerbread Cookie tokens at the end wins!

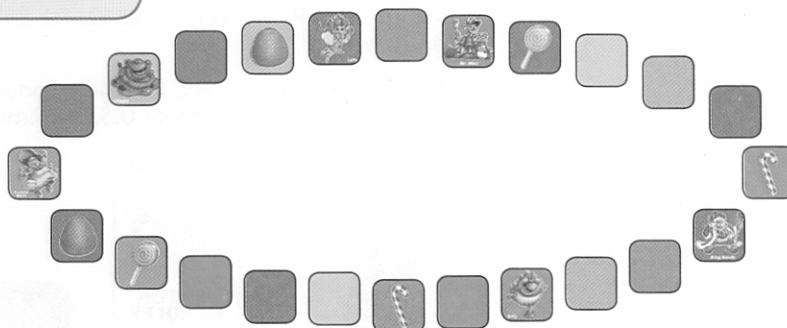

THREE GAMES TO CHOOSE FROM

King Kandy's Gumball Challenge

Hello, my royal subjects. I am King Kandy. Welcome to my Gumball Challenge.

In order to play, you'll need to mix up all of the mats and lay them out in a great big circle. Something like this.

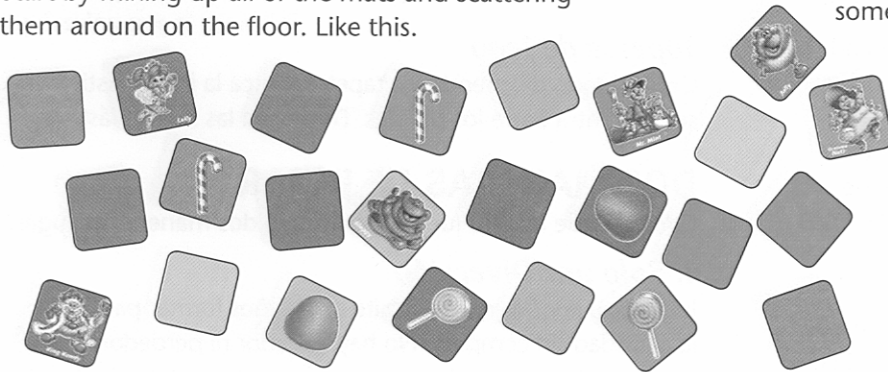

If there's a picture on the mat, make sure it's facing up, so you can see it. Now for the easy part... to play my game, just do what I tell you to. For example, if I say, "hop to a red mat," you hop to a red mat. If someone's already on the mat, keep hopping until you find an empty one. Careful - no pushing allowed! If you're playing Just for Fun, you won't need the Gingerbread Cookie tokens; but if you're playing the Game, I'll award these as you play. Be sure to listen carefully and pay attention, because you never know when I'll give out a token. But the most important thing to remember in my Gumball Challenge is to have FUN!

Mister Mint Says

Hello there, I'm Mister Mint and my Mister Mint Says Game is Cooltastic!

Start by mixing up all of the mats and scattering them around on the floor. Like this.

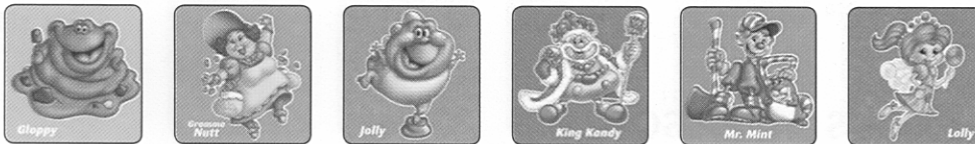

They don't have to be in any order, just as long as the mats with pictures on them are facing up. Superific! Now all you have to do is follow my directions. But there is one catch. You only do it if I say, "Mr. Mint Says." If you do something when I didn't say, "Mr. Mint Says," then I tricked you. If you're playing Just for Fun, you won't need the Gingerbread Cookie tokens but if you're playing the Game, I'll award these to the players I can't trick. Peppermintyrific! So listen carefully, stay cool and remember: only do what "Mister Mint Says."

Gramma Nutt's Musical Moves

Hello dearies, I'm Gramma Nutt, and is my Musical Moves game for you!

First, take the six mats with the Candy Land characters on them and place them faceup in a row on the floor like this.

The rest of the mats can be put aside for now. Splendid. Now I'm going to play some of my favorite music. While the music is playing, you walk, skip or dance around the mats, but pay attention, because when the music stops you need to quickly hop onto a mat. Only one person on a mat please, and no pushing or shoving. I won't have any rough stuff in my game. If you're playing Just for Fun, you won't need the Gingerbread Cookie tokens but if you're playing the Game, I'll award them as you play. So keep your ears open, and let's have some nutty, musical fun.
