

ZOO BABY ZEBRA

Yipes! It's stripes. This adorable baby zebra would love to go home with you. But don't forget his little buddy, the mouse. They're great friends but they still need you to love them and take good care of them.

LITTLEST Pet Shop

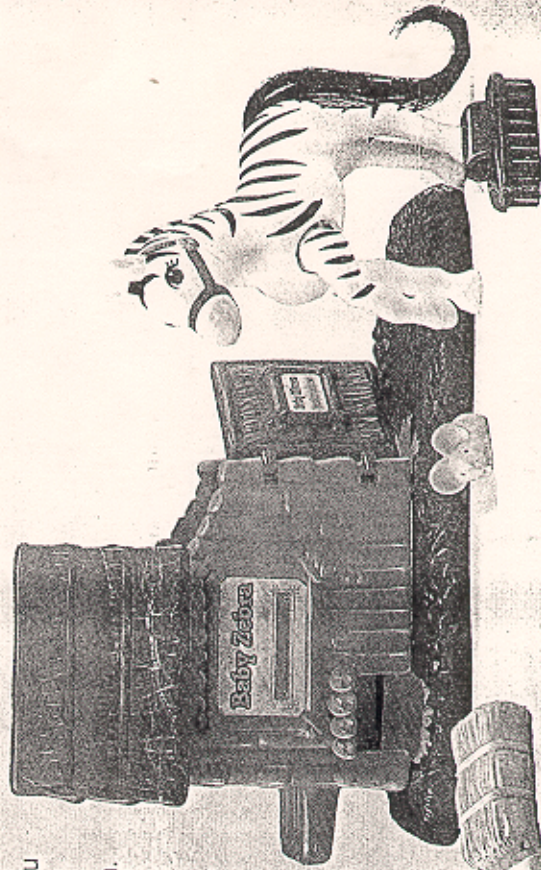

Baby zebra kicks the ground when you stroke his mane. He loves all the attention.

Like all babies, this little zebra loves you to fuss over him. Brush his tail with his very own brush.

This baby lives in his very own barn with a door he can look out when he's waiting for you to come play.

Even his little friend, the mouse, has his own door to the zebra's house. Isn't he cute!

Apply labels, then assemble parts to create playset as shown above.
