

1. A LONG TIME AGO, IN A GALAXY FAR, FAR AWAY...

Two universes await you: the Star Wars universe and the universe of the R-Zone. With the flip of a button, you enter both.

Owing money is bad under any circumstance. But when you owe money to Jabba the Hutt as Han Solo does, your life is held in the balance. Jabba puts a price on Han Solo's head so high that every bounty hunter in the universe is looking for him. Boba Fett is the bounty hunter that finds Han and brings him to Jabba's sail barge.

It's up to Luke Skywalker to carry out the rescue. With Princess Leia and Chewbacca, he arrives on Jabba's barge. He is armed with his blaster pistol and his lightsaber (when he can find it). But Boba Fett and Jabba will not easily give up their prize of Han Solo!

Jabba employs dozens of thugs — low-life scum to guard his sail barge. They are armed with dangerous black-market Vitro-blades and Power Axes.

Jabba also has Gamorrean guards who are his porcine powerhouses. They work cheap, they're dumb, and they love to fight — perfect guards for Jabba! They don't use weapons, they'd rather break Luke with their bare hands!

Jabba's most trusted henchmen wear suits of Battle Armor similar to that worn by Boba Fett. These suits saw extended action in the Clone Wars and many of them are still operational...though highly illegal.

Boba Fett himself wears Battle Armor that has been illegally modified with dozens of weapons to capture, incapacitate, fold, spindle, mutilate, or disintegrate his enemies. Fear him.

As the last Jedi Knight, it will take all of Luke's new-learned Jedi skills to emerge alive and victorious!

2. OBJECT OF THE GAME — "YOU ARE THE LAST JEDI KNIGHT"

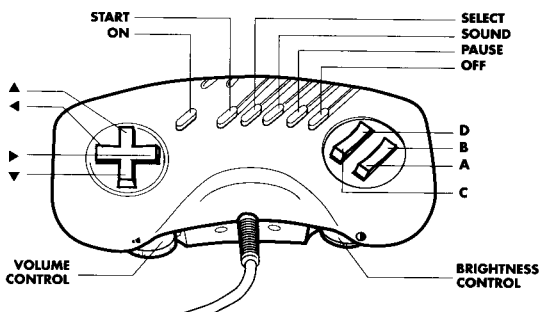

You always play as Luke Skywalker. There are 5 stages of play on Jabba's sail barge. You begin each state with 3 chances and full energy. You lose energy whenever you are hit by an enemy. If you lose all your energy, you lose a chance. If you ever lose all 3 chances on a stage, it's a GAME OVER.

You will discover POWER CONVERTERS randomly appearing on screen. Pick up a power converter to restore your energy to full. You can also thrash your enemies by calling for help from Han, Leia, and Chewie!

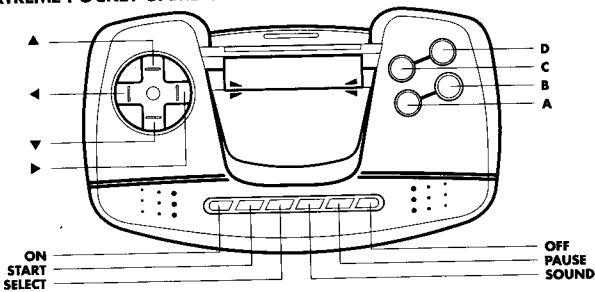

At the end of each stage, a boss enemy will appear. You must defeat the boss to advance to the next stage. If you can complete all 5 stages, you WIN the game. May the Force be with you.
