

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE
CARD GAME

PICK - A - BERRY

OBJECT

Here's a delicious game that you can play all by yourself. In it, you try to match and stack cards with yummy looking berries printed on them. To win, just match and stack all the cards into one great pile.

EQUIPMENT

35 Strawberryland Cards. Spread the cards out and take a look at them. Notice that each card has one, two or three pieces of the same fruit on it (red Strawberries, blue Blueberries, purple Huckleberries, green Apples or red Raspberries). In addition, five other cards picture a familiar Strawberryland character holding his or her favorite fruit.

SET UP

Mix all the Strawberryland cards together, then stack them into one pile. Now place the pile in front of you, face down.

PLAYING

In order to win, you already know that you have to match the cards and stack them into one great pile. Here's how:

1. You can match two cards of the same fruit, no matter how many pieces of fruit appear on each card.
Example: A card with two blueberries matches a card with three blueberries.
2. You can match two cards of the same number, no matter what kind of fruit appears on each card. Example: A card with two strawberries matches a card with two huckleberries.
3. a) You can match a character card with any other card of the same fruit.
b) You can match any two character cards, even if they are holding different kinds of fruit.

To start the game, turn over the top Strawberryland card and place it on the table in front of you. Then turn over the next card and, if it matches the first, place it on top of that card. If it does not match, place it beside the first card. Now do the same with every card in the pile. If a card you turn over matches any card showing, simply place it on top of that card. If it does not match, place it beside any card or stack of cards.

Whenever the top card of one pile matches the top card of another, you may place that entire pile on top of the other. This will help you, sooner or later, to stack all the cards into one great pile.

WINNING

Once you have turned over all the Strawberryland cards, try to match the top cards of any remaining piles to make one final pile. If you do, you win the game. If you don't, remix all the cards and start again.
