

EVIL VEHICONS™

THRUST Motorcycle

Function: Vehicon™ General
Motto: "There are no rules on the road - only the victors and the scrap metal."

By far the most agile of the land-based generals, the Vehicon Thrust is a lethal adversary against any Maximal. Extreme speed and shrewd handling make him a hard target. Subdued personality is a mystery — disposition reeks of a "rebel without a cause." The only general not intimidated by Megatron — always seems to know the correct thing to say. It is rumored that he hosts the spark of former Predacon Waspinator. Outfitted with an enormous amount of firepower; fires energy pulses by spinning his front wheel while popping a wheelie. In robot mode, one arm functions as a rapid-fire energy pulse weapon, the other a grappling hook. Cares for nothing but himself; often heard muttering the nihilistic phrase "To think is to say no."
